First Reading: 1 Kings 3:11–14

The Lord said to Solomon, 'since you have not asked for long life for yourself or riches or the lives of your enemies, but have asked for a discerning judgment for yourself, here and now I do what you ask. give you a heart wise and shrewd as none before you has had and none will have after you. What you have not asked shall give you too: such riches and glory as no other king ever had. and will give you a long life, if you follow my ways, keeping my laws and commandments, as your father David followed them.'

The Psalm

Either: Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.

Second Reading: Romans 8:14-17

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

REFLECTION

O Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds and whose breath gives life to the world, hear me.
I come to you as one of your many children.
I am small and weak; I need your strength and your wisdom.
Make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.
Make my hands respect the things you have made,
And my ears sharp to hear your voice.
Make me wise so that I may know
the things you have taught your children,
The lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock.
Make me strong, so that I may not be superior to other people,
but able to fight my greatest enemy, which is myself.
Make me ever ready to come to you with straight eyes,
so that when life fades as the fading sunset,
my spirit may come to you without shame.

Prayer of a native American

The Club Directors would like to extend their apologies to those members of the club who were unable to enjoy the bar facilities on the evening of Sunday 20th May 2018. The issue arose as a result of a communication error within the bar team and the Directors will look into the matter to ensure that it doesn't happen again.
