BREVIARY WEEK : 2

WORD FOR TODAY

Where do you turn for help and advice?
How do you make your way through the mire of decisions that is modern-day life?

Jesus tells us today that following his teachings, feeding off the bread of life, is the only sure way to real happiness.

First Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built herself a house,
she has erected her seven pillars,
she has slaughtered her beasts, prepared her wine,
she has laid her table.
She has despatched her maidservants
and proclaimed from the city's heights:
Who is ignorant? Let him step this way.
To the fool she says,
Come and eat my bread,
drink the wine I have prepared!
Leave your folly and you will live,
walk in the ways of perception.

The Psalm

Taste and see that the Lord is good

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20

Be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people. This may be a wicked age, but your lives should redeem it. And do not be thoughtless but recognise what is the will of the Lord. Do not drug yourselves with wine, this is simply dissipation; be filled with the Spirit. Sing the words and tunes of the psalms and hymns when you are together, and go on singing and chanting to the Lord in your hearts, so that always and everywhere you are giving thanks to God who is our Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel: John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowd:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another:

'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said.

Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him. As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

REFLECTION – The presence of Christ

Christ be near at either hand,
Christ behind, before me stand.
Christ with me, where e'er I go,
Christ around, above, below.
 Christ be in my heart and mind,
 Christ within my soul enshrined.
 Christ control my wayward heart,
 Christ abide and ne'er depart.
Christ my life and only way,
Christ my lantern night and day.
Christ be my unchanging friend,
Guide and Shepherd to the end.
