14th October 2018 - 28th SUNDAY OF YEAR – B

BREVIARY WEEK : 2

WORD FOR TODAY

They say home is where the heart is.

Similarly, if you want to know where your real values lie then ask yourself what it is that takes up most of your thoughts and energy.

Is it getting and having things?

*Or is it about the quality of your life before God?
If it's the latter, then you've acquired true wisdom.*

Next Sunday is World Mission Day when a second collection will be taken.

CANONISATION OF POPE PAUL VI & ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ROMERO

Please stay after Coffees in the Parish Centre today and watch the film Romero at 11.15am.

Justice & Peace meeting on Wednesday 17th October after the 7.00pm Mass

PIETY SHOP & THE LAUNCH OF PIETY PLUS

ST. AUGUSTINE'S R.C. PRIMARY SCHOOL

(CARMEL EDUCATION TRUST)

OPEN DAY

TUESDAY 6TH NOVEMBER 2018

9.30am – 10.30am or 1.45pm - 3pm or 6.30pm - 7.30pm

The school is holding open sessions for prospective parents / carers of children due to start school in September 2019.

The morning or afternoon sessions provide an opportunity to experience the school in action. An evening session is provided to cater for working parents. All three sessions will allow visitors to gather information about applying for school places in Darlington and to speak to senior members of staff about eligibility for admission to St. Augustine's School.

St. Augustine's is a very popular school and in previous years some families have been disappointed when their application for a place was unsuccessful. It is very important to check with the school about its admissions criteria.

A map showing parish boundaries will be on display during these sessions and staff are happy to answer any enquiries.

If you are unable to attend one of the open sessions, then please contact school with any questions.

A copy of the Admissions policy and over-subscription criteria is also available on the school website or on Darlington Borough Council website.

HOGARTH PARTNERSHIP PLAY 2019

Following the success of our first endeavor 'Great Expectations' earlier this year, plans are now in place for our next production which is set in a large Edwardian London home in 1914. A lively musical comedy, it follows the lives of the household 'below stairs'. The production (as last time) will tour each of our eight partnership parishes 'for one night only' in March/April next year.

- For those interested in taking part either on stage as principals/chorus or backstage or generally helping out, there will be two information/audition sessions. The first on Saturday 27th Oct 2-3pm in St Augustines Youth Hall Larchfield Street OR on Monday 29th Oct 7-8pm in St Thomas Parish Hall, North Road. Alternatively, you can register your interest at hogarthplayers@gmail.com. Unfortunately, there are no parts for young people below 6th form.

This is an across parish project so please consider joining in,- you will be very welcome. This production will be raising funds for Cancer Research UK.

HOGARTH PARTNERSHIP AUTUMN QUIZ

Formerly known as the Autumn Inter-Parish Quiz this event will be held on Saturday, 10th November 2018 in Holy Family Parish Centre. The doors will open at 7:30pm and the quiz will begin at 8:00pm. £1 per person. There will be a bar, buffet and a raffle. For catering purposes it would be helpful if you could let us know if you are entering a team or teams and how many would be in the team.

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and understanding was given me;
I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me.
I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones;
compared with her, I held riches as nothing.
I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer,
for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand,
and beside her silver ranks as mud.
I loved her more than health or beauty,
preferred her to the light,
since her radiance never sleeps.
In her company all good things came to me,
at her hands riches not to be numbered.

The Psalm

Either: Fill us with your love that we may rejoice.

Second Reading Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God is something alive and active; it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another, 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said, 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land - not without persecutions - now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

REFLECTION – Entering the kingdom of love

Jesus saw that the rich young man had great potential,
so he invited him to enter the world of sharing.
But he wasn't up to it – riches got in the way.
As he went away a sadness descended on him,
the sadness that descends on us
when we choose to live for ourselves.
Even though Jesus was sad to see him go nevertheless, he let him go.
There's no point in forcing people to make sacrifices.
If you take things from people, they are impoverished;
but if you can get them to give them up, they are enriched.
People are essentially good,
but this goodness has to be awakened and called forth,
if they are to enter the kingdom of love.
