28th October 2018 - 30th SUNDAY OF YEAR – B

BREVIARY WEEK : 2

WORD FOR TODAY

We do not require a physical or mental illness to need God's healing power.

What is it that God is trying to get us to look at in our own lives and in the needs of others? What words of warning or encouragement do we miss because we are hard of hearing?

All of us are partially sighted and a little bit deaf.

TRAIDCRAFT EXHIBITION - SUNDAY 28TH OCTOBER

There will be an exhibition of Traidcraft goods in the Parish Centre today after the 9.15 a.m. and 6.30 masses. There will be a limited number of goods available for sale at that time and we are hoping to have a number of catalogues for people to look at and order goods. Please come along and have a look and support the work of this important organisation.

On Sunday 4th November those whose funerals have been held here in St Augustine's parish in the last year will be remembered by the reading of their names and lighting candles at our Sunday Masses.

If you would like the name of a relative or friend whom you have lost this year to be added to the parish list, please fill in the details on the list in Church.

A BIG THANK YOU from Piety Plus

Many thanks for your support at the launch of Piety Plus, it was a great start to a 'newish' venture! Your continued support, by visiting the Piety Shop, will help us raise funds for our church and SVP. Our next sale, in the Parish Centre, will be 25th November after Sunday 9.15 mass.

Please come along and see the new selection of gifts on sale.

CLEANING AND RESTORATION OF SIDE ALTARS

David Everingham, who did an excellent job on the reredos, has begun work on the side altars. He is hoping to complete the work in time for Christmas. It will mean that we will have to erect some scaffolding, but this will not take place until after the early November weddings and will be removed in time for the wedding just before Christmas. Disruption will be kept as minimal as possible, but we hope you will agree it will be worth it to see both altars restored to their former glory. If you have any queries would you please email jolyon@tradefair.co.uk

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord says this:
Shout with joy for Jacob!
Hail the chief of nations!
Proclaim! Praise! Shout:
The Lord has saved his people,
the remnant of Israel!
See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth;
all of them: the blind and the lame,
women with child, women in labour:
a great company returning here.
They had left in tears,
I will comfort them as I lead them back;
I will guide them to streams of water,
by a smooth path where they will not stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my first-born son.

The Psalm

What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness.

That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said, 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him, 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.
