

Hogarth Partnership Play.

Following the success of last year's play, Great Expectations, our Hogarth Partnership Players are presenting a musical comedy, 'Below Stairs', set in a large Edwardian London home in 1914 following the lives of the staff there.

The cast and support team come from across the partnership area - in a real community project. As last year, the show will tour all 10 parishes in our partnership and the £5 tickets are valid for any performance in any parish. Tickets for our parish are available from Julie Humphrey .
