Week 11 of the year : Breviary Week - 3

WORD FOR TODAY

The feast of the Trinity celebrates an explosion of love: a Father whose love gave rise to the world and all who inhabit it; a Son whose love took him to the point of giving his own life so that we might live life to the full; and a Spirit whose love for us is such that he guides us into the truth and sustains us for everlasting life.

17th-24th June – CAFOD Refugee Week when we celebrate those who came before to our country as refugees and recognise the difficulties of those now arriving here. We, as a Parish have played a part in the welcome, the shelter, and the support of refugees and asylum seekers for a long time. Through the SVP we currently support the Diocesan Refugee Project by donating tins of sardines (in oil) and toilet rolls. Over this coming week we would urge you to collect these items and bring them to Mass next week. They may be left at the back of Church. The project is seeing increasing numbers of destitute asylum seekers at the Project Centre where they receive a weekly food parcel and those who are not in receipt of funds get a small amount of cash.

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud,

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the worlds dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries - and the waters will not invade the shore - when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

PSALM

How great is your name, O Lord our God,
Through all the earth.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me,
since all he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.'

Trinity reminds us that we have one God who works in so many different ways: a Father who creates us, a Son who shares the Father's glory with us and a Spirit who sustains us in our journey back to the heart of God.

SVP MEETING – Tuesday 18th June at 6.45pm – 10 St Augustine's Court.

REFLECTION – God is watching over us

Nowadays, thanks to the security camera,
we are often being watched,
watched by a cold, dispassionate eye,
intent only on catching us in wrong-doing.

The feeling that someone is watching us is not a pleasant feeling.

But the feeling that someone is watching over us is a lovely feeling.

God is not watching us.

God is watching over us.

The conviction that God is watching over us gives us comfort in times of sadness, strength in times of weakness,
and hope in times of despair.
