WORD FOR TODAY

The God whom we think we know reveals himself to us in many and varied ways. Where do we look in our daily routine to see God acting in our world, showing his love and guiding our lives?

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2020

The final meeting takes place on Thursday 11th July – 10 St Augustine's Court - 7pm

HELP REQUIRED

The SVP and a group of volunteers from the parish run "Sunday Stop" on the first Sunday of the month in our Parish Centre. We provide a 3 course meal for people in our local area who are in need. Over the summer months, when some of our volunteers are away, we are in need of some extra help. You do not need to be able to cook at all! Volunteers ( must be 18+) are needed to serve meals, wash up and set the tables and put them away afterwards. We usually start setting up at 12.30 and finish by 3.30. If you are able to help today 7th July and/or 4th August please email marienewbould04@gmail.com

THANK YOU

For your recent generosity for:

Chris & Elspeth Robinson thank everyone who came to the KUMI COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OPEN DAY on 1 June 2019 & those who helped at the five June Sunday "Coffees After Masses" in the Parish Centre. A special thanks to those who baked cakes and gave their time to make both events a huge success. ## JUSTICE AND PEACE ASYLUM SEEKERS PROJECT

The recent response to the Refugee Week appeal was fantastic. We have been able to deliver an extra supply of toilet rolls and sardines (in oil) this week to the project in Newcastle. Many thanks to all who contributed. We do collect these all year and they are delivered to the project in Newcastle normally in the first week of each month. There is a box for the collection of these under the shelf of the middle aisle in church.

SOME NEWS FROM THE PROJECT'S SUMMER NEWSLETTER:-

We are currently signing up an average of over 50 new clients per month. Our clients also move away and/or get permission to stay so the net increase is about 20 people a month. If this does not change, the project will double in size every two years.

We have well over 600 active adult asylum seekers who come to us looking for help from 55 countries of origin. Although the number of asylum seekers in the UK is in decline, the numbers seeking assistance at the project are increasing all the time. This is in response to Government policies which have led to refugees being housed mainly in parts of the UK where accommodation is relatively cheap.

Thanks to the continued support of our donor parishes/schools, we continue to be able to support all of our clients but we are now beginning to struggle under the increasing weight of numbers. We urge our regular supporters to keep up their parish food collections and to increase them if this is at all possible.

DESTITUTE ASYLUM FUND

This is a special account which is dedicated to help our destitute clients. Currently 170 of our clients qualify for a payment of £25 each month. Cash to this fund comes as donations from parishes, groups and individuals. Some of these take out standing orders, whilst sponsored events help raise valuable funds. This year we expect to pay out over £30000 from the Destitute Asylum Fund. Other costs, such as building rental and purchase of equipment come from the Diocesan Justice & Peace account. This is quite separate from the Destitute Asylum Fund.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO DONATE TO THE DESTITUTE ASYLUM FUND CHEQUES SHOULD BE MADE OUT TO D.H&N DESTITUTE ASYLUM FUND AND SENT TO:

John Dowling, Our Lady of Lourdes Deaf Centre. 2 Summerhill Grove, Newcastle Upon Tyne NE4 6EE.

OR a STANDING ORDER can be set up using the following link http://www.rcdhn.org.uk/social\_concerns/justice\_and\_peace.php and follow the instructions in the Donation section towards the bottom of the page.

Once again many thanks for the wonderful response to the latest appeal and keep bringing in donations of toilet rolls and sardines(in oil). Gerry & Rosie Lynch

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her,
all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight
her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:
now towards her I send flowing
peace, like a river,
and like a stream in spate
the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurselings be carried and fondled in her lap.

Like a son comforted by his mother
will I comfort you.

And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.
To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

PSALM

Cry out with joy to God all the earth.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12.17-20

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.'

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'

Bishop Seamus writes :

'I would like to express my sincere thanks for the very generous gift presented to me by the priests and people of the Diocese, on the occasion of my retirement. I would also like to offer my thanks to all those involved in education in the Diocese for their very generous gift too. I am truly humbled by the kindness of so many. Rest assured that these gifts will be a great help in my retirement. Please keep me in your prayers and be assured of mine for the priests and people of Hexham and Newcastle diocese. May God bless you all'.

REFLECTION – Instruments of the Lord

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon.

Where there is doubt, faith.

Where there is darkness, light.

Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

To be understood as to understand;

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

(St Francis of Assisi)
