14th July 2019 – 15th Sunday of Year C

Week 15 of the year : Breviary Week - 3

WORD FOR TODAY

Do you see people in need as a chance to get something for yourself, as a nuisance or as an opportunity to give of your time, talents and possibly money? These are the three attitudes in the parable of the Good Samaritan and they are as true today as they ever were.

This week is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. There will be a second collection for Apostleship of the Sea, (gift aid envelopes available) the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain.

ARISE YOUTH CONFERENCE 2019 – from 29th August – 1st September - University of Worcester Ages 16+. See the leaflets available at the back of Church or www.jesuyouth.co.uk.

THE SVP WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE SCHOOL FOR THIS GREAT FUNDRAISING EFFORT.

SVP MEETING – Change of Date

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday 16th July at 6.45pm in 10 St Augustine's Court.

THE PEARL OF AFRICA CHILDREN'S CHOIR RETURNS BY POPULAR DEMAND!

Are you willing to host a couple of youngsters from the choir between 22nd and 29th September 2019?

They are out all day visiting schools and require an evening meal, breakfast and taking to and collecting from the St Augustine's Parish Centre Car Park or the local school each morning and evening.

Please contact: Morvyn Sanderson: mobile 07866 374492

or: Chris Robinson: 01325 465469

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.

For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it? Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it? No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.

PSALM

Seek the Lord, you who are poor,
and your hearts will revive.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God
and the first-born of all creation,
for in him were created
all things in heaven and on earth:
everything visible and everything invisible,
Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers -
all things were created through him and for him.
Before anything was created, he existed,
and he holds all things in unity.
Now the Church is his body,
he is its head.

As he is the Beginning,
he was first to be born from the dead,

so that he should be first in every way;
because God wanted all perfection
to be found in him
and all things to be reconciled through him and for him,
everything in heaven and everything on earth,
when he made peace
by his death on the cross.

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said, "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him,' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

REFLECTION – Beatitudes for carers

The good Samaritan was someone who cared.

Blessed are those who care;

they will let people know they are loved.

Blessed are those who are gentle: they will help people to grow as the sun helps the buds to unfold.

Blessed are those who listen: they will lighten many a burden.

Blessed are those who know how to let go:

they will have the joy of seeing people find themselves.

Blessed are those who, when nothing can be done or said,
do not walk away, but remain to provide a comforting and supportive presence:

they will help the sufferer to bear the unbearable.

Blessed are those who recognise their own need to receive:

they will be able to give all the better.

And blessed are those who give without hope of return:

they will give people an experience of God.
