Special Notice

OPENING OF ST TERESA'S CHURCH 6th SEPTEMBER 2020

It is great that we can now see our way to getting back to celebrating our community by coming together for the Eucharist on a weekly basis. All through this emergency we have been expressing our being at church in different ways, but this pivotal one has been missing. No longer!

Michael Cox has kindly volunteered to man a dedicated 'phone. That line will be open every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 6pm – 8pm, a message can be left if necessary and Michael will get back to you. When you phone you will be asked a few questions for the booking sheet. The Stewards on the church door will need this sheet on Sunday, and a record will be kept for tracing if necessary.

The Telephone Number is:

07734274559

The Church will be open from 10am on the Sunday. Please allow a little extra time for the checking in and hand sanitising. You are asked to wear a mask, but if there is a reason that you can't, then please let Michael know when you book so that the door steward will know. Once you come through the check in other stewards will usher you to a seat. Please follow their instructions. We fill up from the front. You can sit in your bubble. Do not insist on being sat in your usual spot. If you forget your mask then Jeanette has some that she has made. Any money raised will go to the Missio Charity. I look forward to seeing you on the 6th. More information will be in the next bulletin.

God bless, Fr.Greg

Mass Readings 23.8.20

First Reading:                    Isaiah 22:19-23

I place the key of the House of David on my servant's shoulder

Thus says the Lord of Hosts to Shebna, the master of the palace: I dismiss you from your office, I remove you from your post, and the same day I call on my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiyah. I invest him with your robe, gird him with your sash, entrust him with your authority; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah. I place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; should he open, no one shall close, should he close, no one shall open. I drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will become a throne of glory for his father's house.

Responsorial Psalm:            Psalm 137(138):1-3,6,8

Your love, O Lord, is eternal: discard not the work of your hands.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart:

you have heard the words of my mouth.

In the presence of the angels I will bless you.

I will adore before your holy temple.

Your love, O Lord, is eternal: discard not the work of your hands.

I thank you for your faithfulness and love,

which excel all we ever knew of you.

On the day I called, you answered;

you increased the strength of my soul.

Your love, O Lord, is eternal: discard not the work of your hands.

The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar.

Your love, O Lord, is eternal,
discard not the work of your hands.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal: discard not the work of your hands.

Second Reading:           Romans 11:33-36

All that exists comes from him; all is by him and from him.

How rich are the depths of God – how deep his wisdom and knowledge – and how impossible to penetrate his motives or understand his methods! Who could ever know the mind of the Lord? Who could ever be his counsellor? Who could ever give him anything or lend him anything? All that exists comes from him; all is by him and for him. To him be glory for ever! Amen.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, and he has entrusted to us the news that they are reconciled.
Alleluia!

Gospel:                       Matthew 16:13-20

You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.
